Notes

Is this Summons valid?

1. This Summons is only valid if it has the Court seal.
2. Unless you knew of this Summons before the last date for service, this Summons must have been served on you before the last date for service set out at the top of this Summons.
3. If this Summons does not comply with notes 1 or 2, you need not comply with it.

Addressee a corporation

4. If this Summons is addressed to a corporation, the corporation must comply with the Summons by its appropriate or proper officer.

Sending documents and things by post

5. For the part of this Summons requiring you to produce documents, you can comply by sending the required documents to the Registrar of Court as set out earlier in this Summons. The documents must arrive at the Registry no later than 2 clear business days before the date for attending Court. If you do this, you will still need to attend Court to give evidence.
6. If you object to any documents or things produced being inspected by the parties, you must notify the Registrar in the way described in Note 10.

Producing documents and things generally

7. Unless the Summons says that you must produce an original document, you are required to produce copies (either hard copy or digital copy) of the documents the subject of this Summons rather than originals.
8. If you are producing copies, you are encouraged to do so by producing digital copies rather than hard copies. This can be done by producing a USB or memory card containing the documents in any of the following document formats:
  - (i) .doc and .docx – Microsoft Word documents
  - (ii) .pdf – Adobe Acrobat documents
  - (iii) .xls and .xlsx – Microsoft Excel spreadsheets
  - (iv) .jpg – image files
  - (v) .rtf – rich text format
  - (vi) .gif – graphics interchange format
  - (vii) .tif – tagged image format
  - (viii) any other format which is agreed with the issuing party.
9. If you produce more than one document or thing, you must, if requested by the Court, produce a list of the documents or things produced.

Objections and Applications in relation to documents and things

10. You may object on recognised grounds to the parties or a party inspecting some or all of the documents or things produced. You must notify the Registrar in writing of any objection at the time you produce the documents or things. The objection must state:
  - a. the documents or things the subject of the objection;
  - b. whether you object to all other parties inspecting the documents or things, or if you only object to some parties inspecting the documents or things;
  - c. why you are objecting, which may include different reasons for different documents or things.
11. You may apply to the Court:
  - a. for an order setting aside the Summons (or a part of it) or for other relief in respect of the Summons; or
  - b. for an order with respect to your claim for privilege, public interest immunity or confidentiality in relation to any document or thing produced.

Cost of complying with this Summons

12. You are entitled to be paid by the party who requested this Summons to be issued:
  - a. your reasonable expenses of attending Court, including travel expenses;
  - b. your reasonable expenses of complying with this Summons, including an appropriate witness fee; and

c. any other expense incurred or loss suffered in complying with this Summons, including legal fees.

13. If you need your reasonable expenses of attending Court paid before you come to Court, you should as soon as practicable contact the party who requested this Summons to be issued.
14. If you will need to travel from outside of South Australia, you are entitled to be paid your expenses of attending Court 14 days before the date of the hearing. If this does not happen, you do not need to obey this Summons.
15. You may apply to the Court for an order for payment of these expenses, if required.

Consequences of not complying with this Summons

16. If you fail to comply with this Summons without a lawful excuse, any of the following might happen:
  - a. you may be arrested and brought before the Court.
  - b. you may be found to be in contempt of court and may be liable for a fine or imprisonment.
  - c. the Court may make any other order within its powers to ensure compliance with this Summons.

Attending Court

17. If you need an interpreter, or if you have a disability that affects your ability to give evidence, you must advise the Court as soon as practicable of any assistance you require. If you need an interpreter, this includes advising the Court of the language and dialect you require.
18. For general information about attending Court, Court services and translation services visit www.courts.sa.gov.au.

Questions

19. If you have any questions about what you must do, or if you cannot comply with the Summons, you should contact:
  - a. the Registrar of the Court; or
  - b. the party who requested this Summons to be issued; or
  - c. a solicitor to obtain your own legal advice.

Notes to Lodging Party

If the recipient is to be served interstate, a Uniform Civil Rules 2020 (SA) Form 108 Notice must be served with the Summons.

If the recipient is a prisoner to be served interstate, a Uniform Civil Rules 2020 (SA) Form 109 Notice must be served with the Summons.
