Order

Date of Order: [date]

Terms of Order

It is ordered that:

Orders in separately numbered paragraphs.

1. Pursuant to section 24 of the Intervention Orders (Prevention of Abuse) Act 2009, [full name of third person] be restrained from dealing with money owing or accruing to the Respondent from [third person] or of the Respondent in the hands of [third person] (including money in an ADI account) until the Respondent and the third person have had an opportunity to be heard in the proceeding.
2. A summons issue to the [the Respondent/the third person] returnable on the date and time and at the place set out at the top of this document to attend and be heard whether a final Attachment Order should be made.
3. [other orders]

To the Respondent and the Third Person: WARNING

The Court will hear the Application, or make orders for the hearing of the Application, at the hearing at the date and time set out at the top of this document.

If you wish to oppose the Application or make submissions about it, you must attend the hearing.

If you do not appear at the hearing or on any day to which this matter is adjourned, the Court may proceed in your absence and orders may be made against you finally determining this proceeding without further warning.

To the Third Person: WARNING

If you do not comply with this order, you will become personally liable for payment to the beneficiaries of the amount unpaid in breach of the order.

If you are an employer of the Respondent, you will be guilty of an offence if you, because of the order:

- dismiss the employee,
- injure the employee in employment, or
- alter the employee's position to the employee's prejudice.

Maximum penalty is $10,000.

Compensation for expenses incurred by you in complying with this order or a final attachment order may be ordered by the Court.
