Remarks

The Court has received reports of at least two legally qualified medical practitioners who have examined the person the subject of the extended detention order ('the Subject') and reported to the Court as to the mental condition of the Subject and whether the Subject is incapable of controlling, or unwilling to control, their sexual instincts.

The Court is satisfied that:

- (a) the Subject is both capable of controlling and willing to control their sexual instincts;
- (a) the Subject no longer presents an appreciable risk to the safety of the community due to [their advanced age/permanent infirmity]; and
- (b) having paramount consideration to protect the safety of the community, it is appropriate that the detention order be discharged.
- (b) having paramount consideration to protect the safety of the community, it is appropriate that the detention order be discharged.
