NOTICE TO PARTY

1. You have been served with an originating process outside Australia under rules 2 to 7 of Schedule 1 to the Uniform Civil Rules. A copy of those rules is enclosed for your information. They show the scope of the jurisdiction of the Court in respect of claims against persons who are served outside Australia.
2. The grounds alleged by the applicant to support the claim to be entitled to serve you outside of Australia are [grounds].
3. The Court may, on application made by you in accordance with the Rules of the Court, set aside the service on you of this originating process if –
  - a. service is not authorised by the Rules of the Court; or
  - b. the Court is an inappropriate forum for the trial of the proceeding.
4. Alternatively you may file an unconditional defence or response (as applicable) within the time required under the Rules of the Court.
5. If you file an unconditional defence or response, additional procedural obligations may apply to you in accordance with the Rules of the Court.
6. If you do not make an application to set aside service referred to in paragraph 3 or file an unconditional defence referred to paragraph 4, the Court may give leave to the applicant to proceed against you without further notice.
