To the Potential Claimants: WARNING The accompanying claim has been brought by the Applicant against the Respondent.

If you also have grounds to make such a claim and wish to do so, you should file an Interlocutory Application supported by an affidavit in the action seeking an order that you be joined as an applicant to make such a claim within 28 days after service of this notice on you. Under section 8(1) of the Inheritance (Family Provision) Act 1972, your claim (if you are joined as an applicant) must be filed and served on the executor/administrator within 6 months from the granting of Probate/Letters of Administration. Although the Court has a discretion to extend that time in limited circumstances, you risk being severely prejudiced if you do not serve a claim within that time.

If you wish to make a claim, you should seek legal advice as soon as possible.
