Recitals

The Court, being satisfied that there are grounds for believing that:

- (a) the abovenamed Judgment Debtor is about to leave the State; and
- (b) the abovenamed Judgement Debtor's absence from the State would seriously prejudice the Judgment Creditor's prospects of enforcing a judgment that has been given in the Judgment Creditor's favour, issues a summons pursuant to section 14(1) of the Enforcement of Judgments Act 1991 requiring the Judgement Debtor to appear for examination before the Court.

To the Judgment Debtor

You are a judgment debtor in the sum of $[amount] pursuant to a judgment entered on [date].

You must attend the hearing at the date and time set out at the top of this document.

If you do not attend within 15 minutes of the hearing time you may be arrested.

You are not able to dispute the debt at the above hearing. If the judgment is a default judgment, you may apply to have the judgment set aside by using a Form 77 Interlocutory Application. You will ordinarily need to establish that you have an arguable case on the merits and a reasonable excuse for not having filed a defence or the other default that led to the judgment being entered. You may wish to seek legal advice about making such an application.
