7A—Statement before arraignment

A statement before arraignment under rule 23A is to be in form 3A and is to be served on the Director.

Part 2—Arraignment

8—Timing of arraignment and listing of trials

- (1) Persons committed for trial in Adelaide, whether in custody or on bail, are to appear before the Court on the first business day of the week being a date scheduled by the order of committal for trial.
- (1a) Persons committed for sentence in Adelaide, whether in custody or on bail, are to appear before the Court on the first business day of the first week being a date scheduled by the order of committal for sentence.

- (2) Persons committed for trial or sentence at a place other than Adelaide, whether in custody or on bail, are to appear before the Court on the second business day of the first week of the next sittings after the expiration of 28 calendar days from their committal for trial or sentence.
- (3) Despite paragraphs (1) and (2), a Judge may direct that a person committed for trial or sentence is to appear before the Court at an earlier or later date.
- (3a) When a person is committed for sentence, the Director is to file and serve not less than 14 days before arraignment on the defendant’s solicitor, or the defendant if not represented, a prosecution case summary setting out a summary of the facts upon which the Director intends to rely on sentencing and an antecedent report in respect of all matters.
- (4) When between committal and arraignment a person decides to change his or her plea to guilty—
 - (i) the defendant’s lawyer or the defendant if not represented is to file and serve on the Director as soon as practicable a notification of change of plea in form 3B;
 - (ii) the Director is as soon as reasonably practicable to file and serve on the defendant’s solicitor or the defendant if not represented a prosecution case summary.

9—Procedure at arraignment

- (1) Subject to subrule (2), on a plea of not guilty at arraignment, or if there is to be a disputed facts hearing, the matter will be listed for trial or a disputed facts hearing on the next available date in accordance with the principles of case flow management articulated in supplementary rules 10 and 11 and remanded to the first directions hearing in accordance with rule 27 of the Rules.
- (2) On matters committed for sentence, submissions on sentence are to be made on the arraignment day unless good reason exists for a later date to be set for submissions on sentence.
- (3) On matters committed for trial but for which a plea of guilty is entered at arraignment, a date for submissions on sentence will usually be set unless the presiding Judge directs otherwise.
- (4) If, at any time after arraignment it is agreed that a matter is to be resolved by a plea of guilty, the accused by his or her lawyer if applicable is to file as soon as practicable a notification of change of plea. The notification is to be in form 3B and is to be served on the Director. The Registrar will place the matter into an arraignment list and vacate any listed hearings or trial for that matter.

Part 3—Listing for trial and disposition of cases

10—Disposition of cases

- (1) The system of case flow management will be administered with the aims that—
 - (a) cases for trial are disposed of or come to trial within 6 months after first arraignment and in any event by no later than 12 months after first arraignment; and

- (b) cases committed for sentence are disposed of or sentenced within 4 months after first appearance in Court.
- (2) The system of case flow management in priority proceedings will be administered with the aims that—
 - (a) cases for trial are disposed of or come to trial in Adelaide within 4 months after first arraignment and in Port Augusta and Mount Gambier within 6 months after first arraignment; and
 - (b) cases committed for sentence are disposed of or sentenced within 4 months after first appearance in Court.

11—Listing of trials

- (1) Unless there are exceptional circumstances, on a plea of not guilty the Court will give the matter a date for trial or disputed facts hearing at arraignment.
- (2) In priority proceedings—
 - (a) if the proceeding is to be heard at Adelaide, at arraignment the Court will fix a date for trial or disputed facts hearing within 4 months after the first arraignment;
 - (b) if the proceeding is to be heard at Port Augusta or Mount Gambier, the Court will fix a date for trial or disputed facts hearing within 6 months after the first arraignment.
- (3) Counsel accepting a brief to appear in a priority proceeding should do so on the basis that they will be able to appear at the trial or hearing within 4 months or 6 months, as the case requires, of first arraignment.
- (4) When a matter is listed for trial, the matter will be listed for a first directions hearing in accordance with rules 27 and 48(1) of the Rules so that parties can report on the status of the matter and obtain pre-trial ancillary orders of the kind described in rule 55 of the Rules.

Chapter 4—Documents, service and hearings generally

Part 1—Documents

12—Approved forms

- (1) The forms in the Schedule to these Supplementary Rules are approved forms.
- (2) A proceeding heading is to be in form 1 and used on all documents in respect of which a front sheet is not required.
- (3) A front sheet is to be in form 2 and used on all documents to be filed or lodged by a party in Court. The text of the document itself is to start on a fresh page.
- (4) The Registrar may allocate an FDN to a document filed by a party in Court.
- (5) Where an appropriate form of delivery is provided an electronic copy of a document may be accepted by the Registrar as the original document.

13—Form of documents

- (1) Unless these Supplementary Rules otherwise provide or the Registrar otherwise directs, a document prepared for filing or lodgment in Court is to—
 - (a) be in the English language;
 - (b) be on A4 size white bond paper;
 - (c) be paginated;
 - (d) be typed or printed so as to be completely legible in no less than size 12 font except for quotations and footnotes which may be in size 10 font;
 - (e) have margins of 4 centimetres to the left and 2 centimetres to the right;
 - (f) have one and a half spacing between lines (unless the document is to be settled by the Court, in which case double spacing is to be used);
 - (g) have double spacing between paragraphs;
 - (h) have figures and amounts of money expressed in numerals and not in words; and
 - (i) have any erasures or handwritten additions authenticated.
- (2) Unless the Court otherwise directs, a document prepared for filing or lodging in Court is to be typed or printed—
 - (a) on a single side of the page if it is an original affidavit or statutory declaration (including the exhibits to an affidavit or annexures to a statutory declaration); and
 - (b) otherwise on both sides of the page if it is any other document.
- (3) If the Registrar is satisfied that a self-represented litigant is unable to comply with one or more of the above requirements, the Registrar may accept a document for filing, provided that it is legible and able to be filed conveniently.
- (4) When there is substantial non-compliance with this supplementary rule, the Registrar may refuse to accept a document for filing.

14—Original of affidavit

- (1) An affidavit filed or produced in Court is to be an original bearing the original signature of the deponent and not a copy. A lawyer or self-represented party lodging or producing an affidavit to the Court impliedly undertakes to the Court that the signatures on the documents are originals and not copies.
- (2) In a case of urgency when it is impracticable for a lawyer to obtain the original of the affidavit before a hearing, the lawyer may swear an affidavit exhibiting a copy of that affidavit. A lawyer swearing such an affidavit impliedly undertakes to the Court that the lawyer will file the original of the affidavit immediately upon receipt.

15—Form of affidavit

- (1) An affidavit is to state that the deponent is speaking of his or her own knowledge except when a statement is made in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (2) An affidavit made for the purpose of an application or hearing other than the trial or final hearing of a criminal proceeding or with the Court’s permission may contain statements that the witness honestly believes to be true if the witness also states the source and grounds of the belief.

Note—

A statement to the effect, “I know the facts deposed herein from my own knowledge except where otherwise appears”, without properly identifying the sources and grounds of information and belief, is unacceptable.

- (3) The address of a deponent in an affidavit may be a business address provided it is a place where the deponent may usually be found during normal working hours.
- (4) Each page of an affidavit is to be signed by the deponent and the witness and dated.

16—Exhibits to affidavit

- (1) An affidavit (including an affidavit of service) that refers to a document already on the court file or part of the court record in a proceeding or a related proceeding is not to exhibit that document but is to describe the document by reference to its FDN when applicable and proceeding number or another indication where it is to be found on the court file. The object of this supplementary rule is that a document should appear only once on a court file or set of related court files.
- (2) Unless a lawyer forms the view that there is good reason not to, documents comprising a sequence of correspondence between the same or related persons and other documents comprising a sequence of a similar kind are to be made a single exhibit instead of being marked as separate exhibits.

17—Binding of affidavit and exhibits

- (1) If an affidavit with exhibits—
 - (a) comprises 50 or more pages (including the body of the affidavit and its exhibits but excluding front sheets); or
 - (b) includes 5 or more exhibits,the exhibits are to be bound together into a volume or volumes with or separate from the body of the affidavit.
- (2) In respect of an affidavit to which paragraph (1) applies—
 - (a) each volume is to be paginated and contain an index showing the page at which each exhibit commences;
 - (b) each exhibit is to be clearly marked with its exhibit designation and tagged so that its commencement can be seen without opening the volume;
 - (c) the binding is to be of an appropriate size and allow the volume to lie flat when opened at any page;
 - (d) each volume (with any binding) is to be no more than 3 centimetres thick;

- (e) the authorised person before whom the affidavit is made is to make a single certification that exhibits in the bundle are the exhibits produced by the deponent when making the affidavit;
 - (f) the certification is to be made on the front sheet of the volume of exhibits and, if there is more than one volume, is to be reproduced and included as a front sheet on each volume together with an index of the exhibit numbers contained in each volume.
- (3) A party may file an affidavit comprising less than 50 pages or including less than 5 exhibits in the manner required by paragraphs (1) and (2), but is not obliged to do so.

18—Form of list of authorities

- (1) A list of authorities is to contain the—
 - (a) full heading of the proceeding;
 - (b) anticipated date of hearing;
 - (c) names or name of the Judges or Judge who will hear the case (if known).
- (2) A list of authorities is to be divided into two parts—
 - (a) PART I to be headed “Authorities to be Read” is to contain the authorities from which counsel will or may read passages to the Court;
 - (b) PART II to be headed “Authorities to be Referred To” is to contain the authorities that are relied upon but from which counsel does not expect to read.

19—Citations in list of authorities

- (1) When a case is reported in an authorised series of reports such as the South Australian State Reports, Commonwealth Law Reports, Federal Court Reports, the English authorised reports (The Law Reports) or in a series of reports containing only decisions of a State or Territory Supreme Court, the citation of the case in those reports is to be used. In addition, the medium neutral citation, when available, is to be provided for all cases, whether reported or not.
- (2) Each authority in a list of authorities provided by email is to be hyperlinked to a page from which the authority can be accessed in HyperText Markup Language (HTML), Rich Text Format (RTF), Portable Document Format (PDF) or other comparable format, so as to facilitate access by the Court to that authority.
- (3) If alternatives are available, a searchable format of the authority is to be preferred over a non-searchable format. In the case of reports provided by Thomson Reuters (eg CLR, SASR or NSWLR) or LexisNexis (eg VLR), the link is to be to the HTML version (and not the PDF version) of the authorised report. In the case of reports sourced from Austlii (the medium neutral version), the link is to be directly to the RTF version of the report (if available).
- (4) If an online authorised series of reports is available to the party delivering the list of authorities, the hyperlink is to be to the report of the case in that series as well as to a freely available medium neutral version of the case (if available).

- (5) If hyperlinking is not possible because, for example, an electronic report of the authority is not available, the authority is to be marked in the list with the words “hyperlinking unavailable”.
- (6) If a hyperlink comprises more than 75 characters, parties should use a hyperlink shortening service such as <http://goo.gl>, <http://bit.ly> or <http://tinyurl.com> to shorten the hyperlink to a manageable form.
- (7) In all cases, the hyperlink provided is to be in addition to, and not in place of, a citation in conformity with paragraph (1).

20—Electronic delivery of written submission or summary of argument and list of authorities

- (1) When a written submission or summary of argument, list of authorities, chronology or summary of evidence and facts is to be provided for any hearing, it is to be lodged with the Court by email in accordance with the following paragraphs of this supplementary rule.
- (2) When the matter is to be heard by a single Judge, the email is to be sent with the subject line required by paragraph (3)—
 - (a) to the chambers email address of the Judge who is to hear the matter (see the link to the Supreme Court on the Courts Administration Authority website (<http://www.courts.sa.gov.au>);
 - (b) if and only if the identity of the Judge is not known—to submissions@courts.sa.gov.au
- (3) When the matter is to be heard by the Full Court, the email is to be sent to submissions@courts.sa.gov.au with a subject line that contains the file number and the names of the parties only.

Example—

File No SCCRM- 2014-123 R v Bloggs

- (4) Authorities are not to be provided as an attachment to the email.
- (5) In every case, a copy of the document lodged by email with the Court is to be sent simultaneously by email to each other party.
- (6) If an email address for another party is not known and cannot reasonably be ascertained, a hard copy of the document is to be served on the other party no later than 5.00 pm on the same business day as the document is emailed to the Court.

21—Criminal Registry

- (1) The Registry is open for business from 9.30 am to 4.30 pm each day except on Saturdays, Sundays, Public Holidays and the Christmas vacation, which comprises the calendar days between Christmas Day and New Year’s Day.
- (2) If it is sought to file or lodge a document or arrange for an urgent hearing when the Registry is not open for business, the party should phone the afterhours business number of the Registry ((08) 8204 0289). The number will provide the current contact details of the rostered on call officer. If that officer is satisfied about the urgency of the request, he or she will arrange for the opening of the Registry and/or for a special hearing.

- (3) Other than with the prior permission of the Judge, no lawyer or party is to contact a Judge to seek an urgent hearing.
- (4) Unless the Rules or these Supplementary Rules otherwise provide or the Court otherwise orders, a party to a proceeding may inspect or obtain copies of documents held on the Court file for that proceeding by an informal request to the Registry.

Exception—

Rule 75 of the Rules imposes special requirements for the inspection and copying of documents produced pursuant to a subpoena.

- (5) When the permission of the Court is required by a member of the public to inspect or obtain a copy of a court record, permission may be sought by letter or email to the Registrar without notice to any party or person interested.

As an alternative to the jabot, white bands may be worn with white shirt and winged collar.
